The Mason LINE

by Chan Mason

The following is the context of a note recently received in the mail by the Review:

"This is my opinion of our overgrown Village; High Taxes, Shoe String Main Street, no C. of C. Room for great improvement."

Taxpayer

Also enclosed was a copy of the questionnaire "Rate Your Town" run here several weeks ago. Only about 10 of the questions were answered 'yes,' the other 30 were answered 'no.'

—ML—

In the meantime the President of the C. of C. has appointed a committee on Broadway Improvement with Harry Griffen as Chairman. Mr. Griffen said at last week's Business Men's meeting, "The Committee needs and encourages comment from all our citizens on plans for the future development of our main business streets."

—ML—

Along the same line we heard that a neighboring city of ours has appropriated a large sum of money for the development of their main street.

—ML—

Who said recession?

We counted five new business buildings in various stages of construction along our main avenue the other day. With as many still in the planning stage. Our announced rumor of new quarters for the First National Trust and Savings Bank is now confirmed. They will move to a new building at the corner of Golden and Imperial. If it's going to be built along the lines of their new branch in El Cajon it will be a honey.

—ML—

Estimates on population of L.G. by 1960, 35,000. It's difficult to even imagine what that will do for our economy.

—ML—

Don't know quite just how we got on this subject but now that we were here we'd better close it up somehow.

Heard of a story told by Benjamin Fairless, Chairman of the U. S. Steel Corp. recently. Seems that there was a clothing store proprietor who had a left over suit that was a perfect nightmare to him. Good quality etc., but the pattern consisted of enormous checks, the predominant colors were green, purple and orange. As he was leaving for lunch one day he said to his salesman, "Sam, I don't care how you do it, but sell that blamed suit." He returned an hour later to find the place in shambles and so was Sam. But the suit had been sold.

"Good heavens, Sam, what happened? Did you have to force the suit on the customer?"

"Oh no," said the cut and bleeding Sam, "he didn't object at all, but I sure had one helluva scrap with his seeing eye dog."

Something Added On Our Railroad

While the Chamber of Commerce wrestles with the more or less knotty problem—to lease or not to lease the railroad right-of-way for parking, a new development complicated Chamber life last week.

Erected on the cross-walk between the Avalon Cafe and the Lemon Grove Shopping Center, was a sign reading "Private Property. All Persons Forbidden To Trespass Hereon."

C. M. Eichenlaub, superintendent of the railroad, said that posting of signs was a matter of routine but has nothing to do with vehicular parking.

Pedestrians should use only designated cross-walks, he said. Railroad engineers are alerted for

Style Shop Increases Floor Space

A program of expansion was announced this week by Helen Gauldin, who operates the Style Shop at 7808 Broadway.

The women's wear shop, one of the oldest in the community, will increase its floor space 500 sq. ft. and will expand its departments in accessories and sports wear. A hat bar will be added.

The additional floor area will house the sports shop which will include bathing suits. Mrs. Gauldin said that bags, hats and gloves and matching accessories would be handled to complement all outfits the firm stocked. She also said that the shop would be complete in all lines and accessories for the well-dressed woman except for shoes.

The shop operates under a slogan "A Better Shop for Women."

New Body-Fender Firm to Open

An auto-body and fender finishing firm will occupy the recently completed building at 3475 Massachusetts just north of Broadway, it was revealed this week.

Robert Schuer of 2770 Cypress Ave. in Lemon Grove will open Bob's Custom Mechanics at that address and start operations this month.

Schuer, an ex-service man, is a former employee at the Naval Shipyard. Schuer said that in addition to body work and painting of automobiles he would also deal in custom body rebuilding, motor tune up, brake repair and adjustments and other mechanical and auto repair work.

The firm's floor space in the new building will be 1,500 square feet, Schuer said.

St. John's Ham Dinner Is Sunday

Everyone is invited to a fine baked ham dinner Sunday at St. John of the Cross Church.

Mmes. E. J. Fitzgerald and Gene Warnmont, the general chairmen, aim to serve a quality meal and prefer to have each meal satisfying and flavorful rather than aim at serving large numbers. From 12 noon to 6 p.m. on Sunday quality is the byword of the day.

Home baked pies and cakes contributed by the ladies of the parish will top off the meal prepared by the committee under the supervision of Mrs. James Hamill in the kitchen.

Anyone desiring tickets, to assist the bus committee, may obtain them from Mmes. Harold Schuster, Burney Bray, or Lee Palaski.

"What Americans need, and what the whole world needs," says Meyer Zung, local financier, "is to settle up and settle down."

traffic at these points. Regular cross-walks have been surfaced to reduce the danger of tripping. These are some of the reasons why trespassing signs are erected at undesignated crossing points.

Looking at the newly erected sign is the Review's favorite model, Rosetta Moore.

Grove Boy Accidentally Hung

A Lemon Grove boy was hanged to death apparently while playing with a rope. Donald Glen Bailey, 12, of 8116 Center St., fell from a stepladder in the basement of a vacant house across the street from his home.

The young victim was discovered by his father, Ovis G. Bailey, and his grandfather, Chester L. Salisbury, when the two men were looking over construction work in the house.

Donald was hanging from a length of cotton rope, the knotted end of which was wedged in a crack of the sub-flooring on the ground floor. The stepladder was standing nearby. He had been seen playing with the rope about an hour before his body was found.

The Grove Fire Department responded and worked with a resuscitator but failed to revive the boy. Sheriff's Department Officer Willard Rigley commended the efficiency of the department in arriving on the scene so quickly.

Donald, who attended the sixth grade at Golden Ave. School, is survived by his mother, Mrs. Louise Bailey, and two brothers, Carlton Le Roy and Paul Eugene.

700 Grovans See Fire Demonstration

Approximately 700 people attended the Fire Demonstration Monday evening, when the Lemon Grove Fire Department staged their first annual out-door event during Fire Prevention Week.

"The demonstration was not only good entertainment, but it was certainly educational," said Fire Commissioner Paul Tilton when he indicated that Fire Prevention Week would be an annual event for Lemon Grove.

Gene Owen, local representative of General Pacific Corp., displayed the various types of fire extinguishers and demonstrated their effectiveness on several types of fires. Lt. Fred Dixon and Engineer Ed Bolieu assisted.

A miniature Fire Truck, No. 1/2, loaned to the department by the Brawley Fire Department, was used by the Elementary School Fire Chiefs to put out a Class A fire. Harry Alexander, Supervisor of the Junior Fire Patrol stated that, in his opinion, his Junior Patrol is the best in the county.

Fire Truck No. 1/2 is visiting all the schools in the district this week to promote the Famous Fire Show, Friday at the Cafeteria at 7:30 p.m. Admission is free. Everyone is urged to attend.

Heartland Players Rehearsals Begin

The Heartland Players began rehearsals for their new play, "Arsenic and Old Lace," Monday night at the Woman's Club. Director Bud Coffin says that rehearsals will be held at 8 p.m. in the Woman's Club every Monday and Wednesday nights, and the third weekly rehearsal will alternate between Friday nights and Sunday afternoons, for the convenience of the cast. Anyone who is interested in joining the group is invited to attend the rehearsals.

Grove to Be Four Times Bigger By 1970 Says Lyons

Lemon Grove population will quadruple by 1970 if the prognostications of Jack Lyons, chairman of the San Diego County Residential Research Committee, holds true.

He told the Kiwanis Club, last week, that he foresaw the population of 58,000 by 1970 or a city the 1950 size of San Bernardino. He said that in 1960 the Grove would be the size of Pomona in 1950 or 35,000. He also stated with firm conviction that Lemon Grove would be annexed to San Diego to enjoy the facilities offered by large cities. Lemon Grove, he reported, has a birth ratio of 4.8 for each death while the county ratio is 3.5. In 1952, 367 babies were born in Lemon Grove and 81 persons died, giving a natural increase of 306 births over deaths. Only one non-white birth occurred in '52.

Members of the local Chamber of Commerce and the Lemon Grove Men's Club were guests.

"Let's stop these golden weddings," says Norman Lighthart, Chamber of Commerce director. "No woman can really stay married to the same man for half a century. After the first few years he's not the same man at all."

Palmer Svalstad To Re-run for Seat On Grossmont Hi-School Board

Palmer Svalstad, prominent Lemon Grove contractor, formally announced his candidacy for re-election to the Grossmont Union High School District Board of Trustees at the last meeting of the board.

Svalstad was appointed to the Grossmont Board recently by Dr. Cecil Hardesty, County Superintendent of Schools, who acted up on favorable endorsement by civic organizations in Lemon Grove and the Grossmont Board.

Mr. Svalstad has been active in Lemon Grove Chamber of Commerce, the Lions Club, and in church work. Recently he served on the bond campaign committee for Lemon Grove School District. Of his four children, three are enrolled in Helix High School. His interest as a school trustee is in provision of a good educational opportunity for the youth of the district coupled with good management of education funds.

His knowledge of construction, his experience as a leader in civic affairs and his interest in education as the father of four children qualify him for the post of school trustee.

He operates the Lemon Grove Building Co. on Broadway.

As Lemon Grove Cafetorium is Dedicated

Accepting the new cafetorium for the Lemon Grove residents last Sunday, were Robert Brown, trustee, Attorney Luther Hussey, judge of the local court, Byron Netzel, superintendent, and Frank Armstrong, trustee.

Approximately three hundred school patrons at the junior high dedication heard Dr. Cecil D. Hardesty, county superintendent of schools, declare that today's schools are doing an excellent job of educating the youth of the nation and in so doing, they are not neglecting the teaching of moral and spiritual values. In the dedicatory address, he pointed out that the classes throughout San Diego County, from tests given at various times, are comparable with schools anywhere else in the nation. Luther Hussey, master of ceremonies, introduced Hardesty and other program guests.

During the musical selections, the people of Lemon Grove heard their first opportunity to hear the new piano recently purchased for the junior high auditorium.

Following the formal program, guests toured the new classrooms and enjoyed refreshments furnished by district P-TA units.

Initial Reports Handed in by Water Advisory Chairman

W. G. Sloan, Engineering Committee chairman for the L. M. L. G. S. V. Irrigation District Advisory Committee reported progress in the engineering study designed to give district residents more service and better pressures. It was the regular monthly meeting of the group.

M. J. Shelton, district manager-engineer and W. H. Jennings, district's attorney discussed inclusion of island areas and the annexation to San Diego of Rolando with the anticipated withdrawal from the district.

The height of foolishness: ruining your health trying to make a million dollars, then spending the million trying to regain your health. So says Bob Lindley, our local druggist.

Local Woman Active In Mrs. Roosevelt's Visit Arrangements

Attention of Lemon Grove residents to the forthcoming visit of Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt is requested by Mrs. Marian Gronaw, publicity chairman of the San Diego Chapter, American Association for the United Nations. Mrs. Gronaw lives in Monterey Heights.

Mrs. Roosevelt will lecture on "Outlook for the United Nations" at Russ Auditorium Saturday, April 3, at 2 p.m. "She is a member of our National Board of Directors," states Mrs. Gronaw.

Mrs. Roosevelt will be accompanied by her secretary, Miss Pat Baillargeon, the AAUN National Executive Director, Clark Eichelberger, known to the public through his weekly broadcast, "U. N. is My Beat," and Col. C. M. Nelson, chairman of the Southern California State Council. Following her address, written questions will be taken up from the audience for a discussion period.

Tickets will be one dollar plus tax, on sale in Palmer's Box Office, 640 Broadway, starting March 20.

Grossmont Hospital Bonds Sold to Bank of America

Award on the sale of bonds of the Grossmont Hospital District was made to low bidder, Bank of America of San Francisco, on the $800,000 bond issue, voted last October, for construction of our new hospital. The complete issue sold at 2.70% interest. This money, along with Federal and State grants will now permit complete financing of construction and equipping of our long waited hospital facilities.

The Dixon LINE

Now the cigarette manufacturers have run out of superlatives in boosting their products. They now advertise heavily on the filler end with only a casual mention of the tobacco behind it.

Pat Henry said that taxation without representation was bad . . . he should be around today to see it with representation.

One of our local adult Quiz Kids, with a very low I. Q., asked us why schools only operate nine months in the year, when we have more children than school rooms in which to place them. He went on to say that our prisons which are largely educational institutions operate the full year round.

Having an equally low I. Q. we could only reply that the system is nationwide. But no business could operate profitably with a three month shut-down each year.

Looking down the railroad track the other day, we thought we saw a mirage. There were three or four workers on the much improved right-of-way, leaning on their shovels in approved W. P. A. fashion. Getting closer we recognized members of the Business Women's League doing their uplift work. Those gals are entitled to a lot more credit than has been accorded them, and we go on record as one very appreciative citizen.

When the school bonds went over 6 to 1 it was as it should be. But the percentage of voters polling still indicates indifference to a substantial proportion of our taxes.

The Dimmer VIEW

by Max Goodwin

I want to thank the editor of the Morning Sun (Iowa) News Herald for putting into words the regular plaint of this newsman. His lament, and mine, is reproduced herewith:

"When you go to the store to buy an axehandle, a pair of gloves or a package of hairpins you have a pretty good idea of what you are going to receive in exchange for your money. But when you subscribe to a newspaper, you are taking quite a chance."

"If you have feelings of trepidation as you lay down your hard earned money in purchase of a subscription to this or any other rustic journal you have our entire sympathy. When we consider all the good things you are going to read and all the good things you are going to miss throughout the year we are inclined to think all newspaper subscribers are people who are just a little careless with their money."

"The grim truth of the matter is that your investment in a newspaper subscription is protected only by the willingness of the editor to scour the community in search of news stories, to delve into current local history or exhumate the mummified events of yesterday, to editorialize in some manner or other, and to present advertising material as it comes or is drawn into his clutches. If the editor fails in any or all of these departments you, as a subscriber are being defrauded. If he fails in all these efforts your subscription money is to be regarded as a mere donation to charity, and from the editor's point of view much is to be said for favoring this practice."

"Now if you are one who has been debating the advisability of group.

Luau Feast Set For Helix Parents

There will be another gathering of the clan when parents of Helix Highlanders enjoy dinner together at their "Luau Feast" Thursday, March 25, in the Helix cafeteria. Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Lewallen, co-chairmen of the event, announce that dinner will be served from 6 until 7:30 p.m.

to be followed by a short business meeting to elect officers for the coming year. Reservations may be made with Mrs. Tom Kelley, (HO 6-3210) or tickets may be secured from any Helix

P-TA board member. Mr. John T. Warburton has arranged the entertainment to follow the business meeting.

Mrs. William Beasley urges parents and students to have dinner together since prices are right to make it a family night.

Foothills Secondary Council will meet in the Helix cafeteria Wednesday, March 17 at 7:30 p.m. Helix P-TA will serve as tical nurses seeking a California license will be required to complete a course in vocational nursing as established by law.

To qualify under the waiver nurses must have five years of generalized experience, one year of which must have been in a hospital or health agency, three years in generalized nursing, two of which must be in a hospital or health agency together with a refresher course of not less than 64 hours, a graduate of a practical nurse program meeting requirement of the board, a veteran of the armed services medical department including the basic course given by them, proof of tenth grade education or its equivalent, a birth certificate, proof of citizenship.

Contest-Time . . . Congratulations goes to a thirteen year old Lemon Grove Junior High eighth grader named Connie Reid of 3016 Main st. in Lemon Grove for answering last week's quiz right. Thanks to Jerry Lindsley, Janet Henderson, Jim Lindsley, Louise Robinson, Lennie Weber and Bolivar Shagnasty for trying to win the contest—keep trying!

The correct answer was Mel Torme! This week's question—"When was the Lemon Grove Radio & Appliance store established?" The winner will receive a 78 rpm record and a free chicken dinner for two at Richie's Drive-In.

Dance-Time . . . Remember this important date: March 24. Time: 7-9:30. Place: Parking lot of L. C.'s new Big Ace market. What's happening? A big teenage dance. The story behind the story: Free food, free drink, "The Pastels" (a real cool band) will provide the dancing music; NTG, from Hollywood, and Al Hunter, from San Diego (KSDO), will both MC the event; some lucky people from the audience will get the chance to go to Hollywood for free and appear on NTG's TV show; records will be given out for free; records will be played along with the band; how's that sound. So for a riot night, be there at Ace market on the 24th.

Tops in Pop . . . Top five popular records at Helix this week: (1) "Make Love to Me," Jo Stafford; (2) "Young at Heart," Frankie Sinatra; (3) "Cross Over the Bridge," Patricia Page; (4) "Wanted," Perry Como; and (5) "I get So Lonely," Four Knights.

My Helix High . . . Sophomore Class Officers—president, Ronnie Svalstad; vice-president, Carol Cornish; secretary, Sandy Tucker; treasurer, Joan Manchester; advisors, Mr. Frankie Cross and Mrs. Dot Pascoe . . . It is now a well established fact that the spaghetti dinner thrown by the Key Club of Helix before our last San Diego vs. Helix basketball game was successful.

Editorial . . . 'Tis a shame that a certain four-year high school that has its buildings in San Diego County a few miles east of La Mesa can't find its way to be in good standings with other high schools. No, this certain school is not Helix. I wish to remain quiet as far as the name of the high school is concerned, but they know who they are.

Why aren't they in good standing? This 'Certain' school is one of the few backward high schools that hasn't quit freshman "hell week." Most schools, using Helix as an example, have a "welcome week" wherein the freshmen (ninth graders) are welcomed to their school. Helix is honored to receive them in as they are honored to be there. But this 'Certain' school doesn't do that. No sir! They have to torture, molest, embarrass, swat, etc. the newcomers to the school. To my way of thinking, only very backward or very thoughtless teachers and students permit this suffering to exist.

Fire Auxiliary to Aid Red Cross

The Women's Auxiliary of the Lemon Grove Fire Department held their regular monthly meeting in March at the fire station. New committees for publicity and hospitality were elected. It was decided to continue to help with the Red Cross Drive.

The mothers of the Junior Fire Chiefs were guests of honor. Firemen Alexander and Calderone talked about Fire Prevention week and the part the Junior Fire Chiefs played. Several fire prevention movies were shown, after which refreshments were served. The next meeting will be held at the home of Lorraine Dixon.

Seven Years of Progress

Seven years ago, James Banister, then a 28 year old grocer with an objective in view, formed a partnership with William Briggs in a 25x50 foot building in Pacific Beach, (Ace No. 1). Within a few months the first step up the ladder was taken when Banister bought out the firm.

Then Ace Markets was formed with Banister, T. Parham and L. R. Green as the board of directors. Just six months later Banister bought and still holds all Ace stock.

Six years ago, Ace bought a market in Crown Point, (Ace No. 2) which was, and still is one of San Diego's most beautiful stores. The firm sold these stores and bought a market on Chatsworth (Ace No. 3). In 1952 a market was purchased on Garnet and the word "Big" was added to make it Big Ace No. 4. This became known as San Diego's most efficient market.

Lemon Grove becomes Big Ace No. 5 and represents a $1¼ million dollar investment with a $200,000 food inventory. It has been called one of the most farsighted market ventures in present day investments. Already five offers to buy the market have been rejected by the management in spite of any opportunity to turn an immediate profit.

Thus, Big Ace becomes a permanent part of the economy of San Diego County.

A Message From the President

Big Ace No. 5, in my opinion, is one of the world's finest markets. Such a huge market inevitably brings changes in the character and shopping habits of a community. The benefits resulting from Big Ace will be drastic and important to the Foothills area. We sincerely hope that you will be one of the beneficiaries.

I would like this opportunity to express my thanks for you to the persons and firms who made Big Ace No. 5 possible.

Only men of vision and progressive thinking could produce such a remarkable market in so short a time. The persons who diligently planned and helped build this market have earned our gratitude. Pictured on these pages are some of the men, who with the firms they represent, took part in the development of this fine market.

From the time the idea was conceived, through city and county planning, from the turning of the first shovel of rich Lemon Grove soil, to the lighting of the huge neon signs, it was a job well done and merits the thanks of our entire organization.

Helix Spanish Club
Hears Peruvians
The Spanish Club at Helix High received a rare treat last Saturday when several midshipmen from the Naval Academy of Peru visited them.

The Peruvians have been in San Diego for the past six weeks on their summer cruise and the members of the Spanish Club, with the assistance of Alga Ricourt as interpreter, entertained the sailors at school and in doing so learned about their country, its customs and way of life.

The Club feels that through knowledge of other peoples, better world relations can be achieved and with this thought in mind they hope a similar visit will be possible again next year.

I AM A LEMON GROVAN

Through These Doors Pass the World's Smartest Shoppers

Here's Why I Came To Lemon Grove To Bring You:

LOWER FOOD PRICES

No market can feature lower food prices just by wishing! You've got to produce. Big Ace's formula for proving consistently lower prices is by comparison. As members of one of the largest wholesale co-operatives in the world, Big Ace has buying power second to none. This is your guarantee of lower prices.

MORE FRIENDLY COURTEOUS SERVICE

We have the best personnel in the West. We have selected and schooled more than 100 persons whom we chose for their ability, courtesy and character. These persons will be constantly schooled for improvement to better serve you.

MORE CONVENIENT PARKING

We are particularly proud of our wrap-around parking area with entrances and exits on three of Lemon Grove's major streets. None of those skimpy parking stalls for Ace shoppers. Big, wide berths to give you plenty of room to open your doors even with your arms loaded. 300 cars can park with ease and for your added convenience, mercury vapor lights flood the entire area to give daytime-light illumination.

MORE SHOPPING SPACE

Big Ace stole a page from the book of the new eight-lane Lemon Grove freeway and planned big wide aisles with plenty of room for shopping and passing. There will be no fretting behind slow moving customers here. If you are a quickie shopper, you will be in and out in a flash.

By BOB TURNBULL

Ratner Recommends . . . Here are this week's recommended records by Ratner's. "Long Distance Love" and "The Kids Last Night" by Frankie Laine on Columbia. Also "Destiny" and "Such a Night" by Jonathon Ray (Columbia).

The Wild Albums . . . RCA Victor and Decca recently found themselves out of the picture temporarily as both were in the process of releasing title albums from Columbia's Marlon Brando film, "Hot Blood." It was suddenly announced that the name of the picture would be changed to "The Wild One." Hurried consultations resulted in an agreement by Columbia Pictures to foot the bill for new album coverings and record labels. The recording companies then recalled the albums and reissued them under the new title. Moral of this story: You can buy this album at Ratner Electric, 8th & Broadway in downtown San Diego - phone BE 4-3363.

Albums . . . Here's some box albums that one can buy at Ratner's to play on their 45 r.p.m. record-player. "Sing & Dance with Frank Sinatra," Frankie Sinatra (Columbia). "Norman Granz' Jazz at the Philharmonic," Norman Granz (Mercury). "Billy Eckstine Sings," Billy Eckstine (M-G-M). "Arthur Godfrey's TV Calendar Show," Arthur Godfrey (Columbia).

Civil Defense
Notes
Charles Gurley HO 6-3745
The next class in Red Cross First Aid will start March 30 and will be held each Tuesday evening 7 to 10 o'clock at the La Mesa Elementary School, Orange and Date Streets, announced Dr. Frank B. Gigliotti yesterday.

"We hope every person engaged in Civil Defense work will take this course," said Dr. Gigliotti, "a person trained in First Aid is ever so much more use in an emergency than one without such knowledge. It also helps in personal survival."
"All those who wish to enroll will please notify Mrs. Hopper at HO 6-6697 and then be present at The quota for membership and fund drive hasn't yet been reached was the announcement made today by Mrs. Lee Jordan, chairman of the drive.

"There is still a chance left to make a donation," said Mrs. Joseph H. Woody, "anyone who wishes to be included, may phone HO 6-0434, leave their name and address and we will send a member around to pick it up. All you need to do is to make your wishes known to us."

"There is yet a chance for Lemon Grove to meet its quota," said Mrs. A. J. Huebsch, "when last minute donations and final returns are counted, we hope to find we have at least made our quota."

Room 15 when the class starts Tuesday, March 30."

The regular March meeting of the Civil Defense and Disaster Organization was held last Thursday evening in the Youth Center. "Skip" Heidick called the meeting to order in the absence of Dr. Frank B. Gigliotti. The program was arranged by Chief Hensley and a number of men from the Lemon Grove Fire Department.

"Fires under control are very handy things to have around," said Chief Hensley, "But we Americans have the most fires of any nation in the world, and much of it must be attributed to our own carelessness." He continued with numerous facts regarding fires and ways by which they may be avoided. His group also showed a number of pictures among which was one entitled "Are You Safe At Home?"

Mrs. Edna Snyder reported she had made considerable progress with quite a number of Grocery and Drug stores who had agreed to feature a list of groceries and drugs which the Civil Defense authorities recommended that every householder have on hand so that they may be prepared in the event of a bombing or other disaster happening. These will be featured about April 1.

In addition to the above named there were present: Mrs. C. W. Brown, Mrs. Goldie Moore, Mrs. Roy Woodward, Roy Nielson, Harry Alexander, Mike Calderone, James Sanchez, Clarence Scheidel, Harry Robinson, Leo Heaton, Joe Haynes, Howard Jollett and Charles Gurley.

Golden P-TA
Previews Cafetorium

The patrons of the Golden Ave. P-TA had a "snack preview" of the new cafetorium of the Jr. High School, when the March meeting of the association was held there last Thursday.

Mrs. E. W. Middleton presided over the short business meeting at which the officers for 1954 were elected.

R. H. Lange heads the new executive board as president. Mrs. Joseph Szalay, 1st vice president, in charge of programming the meetings for the coming year. Mrs. Howard Mays, 2nd vice president in charge of membership. Mrs. Arthur Long, recording secretary. Mrs. Edward Cavallin, corresponding secretary. Bert Cosby, treasurer. Mrs. Frank Armstrong, historian, and Mrs. Orville Reese, auditor.

The school glee club presented a quartet, under the direction of Mrs. Elda Bengtson. A film, "Born in the White House," dealing with the research in polio was shown, after which was a question and answer period conducted by Dr. Wesley Herbert. The parents were especially appreciative of Dr. Herbert's warning, "If your child has a headache, and a cold, he should be kept in bed until he has a normal temperature for two days."

Mrs. Phister, in charge of the Lemon Grove School cafetorium, told about the type "A" school lunches the children get, and how the food is subsidized. Mrs. Phister also told the group why it is not advisable to publish a menu. Seems as though every boy and girl would be present on "hot dog day," and absent on days when they didn't like the particular food being served!

After the program, refreshments were served by the first grade mothers, hostesses for the evening.

Methodist Men's Group
Take Potluck at Meeting

Lemon Grove Methodist Men's Group held their March meeting and enjoyed a pot luck dinner followed by vocal endeavors (they're getting better).

After the business meeting guest speaker, Dr. Ballinger, gave a talk on "The Three Stones of the Foundation of the Church, Decision, Concern and Endurance." Dr. Ballinger is Southern California District Supervisor of the Methodist Church.

state and county officials will be on hand as well as radio, television and movie notables.

Banister, who is opening his fifth supermarket, has attracted a wide following of notables. The 35 year old grocery tycoon is reputed to be one of the most knowledgeable and able merchandisers in the business.

"We are certain that we will change the shopping habits of most of the people in this area," Banister said. "We handle nothing but nationally known merchandise and always at competitive price levels. We share our profits with our shoppers by giving S & H Green Stamps. We feel that every homemaker who is interested in setting a better table for less money will be a day-in day-out customer of Big Ace."

"We have more items at competitive prices than any market in the area," reported Larry Childress, named to supervise the 125 Lemon Grove residents who will be employed by Big Ace. "No market can exist on notoriety alone, they have to produce merchandise at low prices. We guarantee to meet or beat all competition."

As part of the opening event, the manager will be flown to the roof top of the Big Ace by helicopter. "This," says Kenny Stapp, Big Ace general manager, "will dramatize the forward thinking of the Big Ace organization. We have arranged for the La Mesa Airport helicopter, which will be piloted by Hugh Ramsdall, and we will bring our manager in from one of the other stores in time for the opening Wednesday morning. He will alight atop the Big Ace roof which has been designed to handle helicopter landings against the time when this form of transportation will be needed to bring in produce, fruit, meats and other perishables so that every customer will be assured of the ultimate in freshness of the merchandise they buy."

The teenager dance which starts at 7:00 p.m. Wednesday will hear the music of the Pastels. A huge buffet will be set to cope with the appetites of the youngsters. While the dance is primarily for teenagers, adults are invited to look on. A platform has been built so that the band, the disc jockey and Hollywood personalities may be viewed by the expected throng. It is expected that most of the persons attending the event will gain gratification from the merchandise which is to be priced extremely low for the opening.

DIMMER VIEW

confronting your editor with a schedule of particulars regarding his shortcomings we would beg you to postpone the showdown while we commune with you. We would like to preface our plea with this general statement: The editor's lot is not always fallen in pleasant places.

"Every time he brings out a new issue he is a sitting duck for every person who can read; and if they happen to be good spellers, or if they are addicted to an appetite for the more delicate shades of good grammar, the editor is then a dead duck."

"Before the editor can write a single line he has to think or be exposed to the thoughts of others. This is a rough choice, for thinking is just as painful to an editor as it is to you and to be exposed to the thoughts of others will either blight his crop of original ideas or reduce him to the somnolence of complete boredom. So before you consign your editor to the limbo of jaded journalists, consider him please in this more human aspect."

"Picture him in his mental writhings as he wrestles with ideas and jousts with words. Keep pace with him as he runs the whole gamut of local opinion and seeks to find a way to tell the truth and still not alienate all of his readers. Sit by his side as he stares for a half an hour at a time at a spot on the wall and hopes that somehow he can come up with an editorial starter."

"But if the editor refuses to think at all and takes refuge in the unending task of ferreting out local news he will not have escaped criticism. He will merely have swapped the intellectual type of critic for the sneers of the village gossips who can beat any newspaper man at his own game. There is no reporter no matter how hard he may work at his trade, who can get around fast enough to keep ahead of all the small town gossips. They can hear and send on a newsy tidbit quicker than lightning can travel the length of a hoe handle. And if the news is a bit on the shady side the lightning is badly out-classed."

Gasco Economist To Present Woman's Club Program

The program at the meeting of the Lemon Grove Woman's Club Juniors Tuesday, will feature a home economist from the San Diego Gas and Electric Co. who will demonstrate the preparation of "meals in a hurry."

Business will include discussion of club representatives on the Citizens Advisory Committee, presentation of the slate for new officers by the nominating committee, and arrangements being made for the luncheon and fashion show "Sing a Song of Spring" on April 3.

The following five new members were welcomed into the club at the last meeting: Lenette Zick, Jean Wilson, Kay Nelson, Marion Harvey and Eleanor Gurney.

Mmes. Charles Calkins, Bennie Jones and Robert Hamilton will serve as hostesses for the coming meeting.

Lemon Grove P-TA Notes

At the executive board meeting of the Lemon Grove School P-TA at the home of Mrs. Robert Brown, 4208 Marion Street, Mrs. Grover McMahon, ways and means chairman, announced that funds from the "traveling basket" project of the unit had grossed over two hundred dollars to date. Further funds will be realized from the unit's rummage sale scheduled for this Friday afternoon in San Diego.

Dancing classes for the seventh and eighth graders have been completed and the group will sponsor similar classes for the sixth grade students in the near future. Reports were also made by the program chairman, Mrs. Virgil Danielson, and by Ben I. Schei, school principal.

Members attending included Mrs. John Dail, president, and Mmes. M. G. Avery, John Malow, Herman Bryant, Robert Beckham, Grover McMahon, R. C. Taylor, J. W. Burren, E. B. Stewart, Harold Randall, W. J. Glazebrook, Virgil Danielson, Loy Holmquist, Peg Darroch, and the hostess, Mrs. Robert Brown. Also Ben I. Schei and Tom Brogan attended.

Camp Fire Girl News

March is a busy month for Camp Fire Girls. The 17th of March is the organization's 44th birthday.

March 14 is the Camp Fire Birthday Fair, an exhibition of hand crafts, folk dancing and songs by many of the groups of Blue Birds and Camp Fire Girls in the county. This will be held in the Recital hall at Balboa Park from 2 to 5 and all Camp Fire and Blue Birds and their friends are invited.

The Camp Fire Birthday project this year is "Let's be Different Together!" It is learning how other people in this world of ours live, discovering the similarities and differences in the way people fulfill their needs, and gives a sense of appreciation for our way of life. Our girls should be encouraged in sharing with others and helped to feel that generosity is best when it is motivated by a feeling of friendship. We are dressing dolls in costumes of other countries, learning to cook foreign dishes and learning folk dances from other lands. Also assembling sewing kits and clothing to be sent overseas.

March 4th and 5th were big days for the Camp Fire Area Council. It was the Regional Annual Meeting at the U. S. Grant Hotel for all the Region 5's 22 councils. Miss Martha Allen, national director and Miss Eldora De Motts, the Regional 5 supervisor were present to conduct the work shops and general sessions. The Blue Birds had charge of the Lemon Grove monthly group meeting at San Miguel Cafeteria, March 5. All Camp Fire and Blue Birds were invited. There were dances by the Bob-o-links, Mocking Birds and Opeechee Blue Birds groups, a puppet show by the White Cloud group and accordion solos played by girls from the Robinettes, square dance by the Bob-o-links and songs by the Brookside Blue Bird group of Brookside, followed by group singing and dancing.
